

Manager wanted for Greek animal shelter

The Corfu Donkey Rescue is currently looking for a general manager to run the daily work at the sanctuary. This is a full-time, paid offer of employment.

Sound experience with handling horses or donkeys, honesty, reliability and great compassion for animals are required as well as nursing experience and experience in a supervisory capacity. Terms and conditions of employment excellent for suitable candidate who is looking for a long-term position. You need to be prepared to relocate to the island of Corfu.

For a full job description and further information please get in touch with Judy Quinn at corfudonkey@gmail.com.

Please note: Since the head of Corfu Donkey Rescue is English, all correspondence and applications need to be in English.